

Another Soul Has Been Redeemed

Brenda Geneau © 2002 Polished Arrow Publishing

You've looked into the Savior's eyes
I can tell just by your smile
And you've tasted of His Saving grace
This I know by the glow on your face
You've placed your trust in His hands
And you've become a new creation
I can tell by your countenance
The glory of His love shines through

Chorus

So I join with choirs of angels
Singing hallelujah to the Lamb
Yes I join with choirs of angels
Another soul has been redeemed
And we sing hallelujah to the Lamb

Now you know that only He Could fill your empty heart
And now you know that only He
Can mend lives torn apart
So it's time to celebrate
For you have been set free
I can tell by your countenance
The glory of His love shines through

Chorus
