

Lord I Love Your presence

©2000 Polished Arrow Publishing Brenda Geneau

Lord I love Your presence
I love to sit at Your feet
O the sound of You calling my name
Brings melody so sweet
O the fragrance of Your love
Is sweeter than the morning dew
O the comfort of Your precious touch
One can only find in You

My lips will confess Your name
I will never be the same
My mouth will sing of Your praises
Forever and ever. Amen!

As I look around this place
In Your children I see Your face
There is no other joy that fills my heart
Like the joy found in Your grace
I will put my trust in You
Every day I will seek Your Truth
And I will walk in the path of Your righteousness
Each step is lead by You
