

SOMETIMES HE USES PAIN

(TO PROVE HIS LOVE)

©1995 Polished Arrow Publishing Brenda Geneau

With tear filled eyes they held each other tight
As they knelt beside his bed they prayed with all their might
O' the pain to see their baby lying there
They cried out to the Father "Lord please hear our prayer".

On a cold rainy morning she stood there by his grave
As she looked up to the heaven she tried so hard to be brave
O' the pain of losing the one she loved
She cried out to the Father, "Lord Your will be done".

Sometimes we just can't understand the ways of our Lord
Sometimes He uses pain to prove His love
So if we hold on to His Word I know He'll see us through
Sometimes He uses pain to prove His love for us

He gave His only Son to die up on a cross
He shed His blood to free up all the lost
O' the pain He suffered for you and me
As He cried out to the Father there on Calvary

Sometimes we just can't understand the ways of our Lord
Sometimes He uses pain to prove His love
So if we hold on to His Word I know He'll see us through
Sometimes He uses pain to prove His love for us

Sometimes we just can't understand the ways of our Lord
Sometimes He uses pain to prove His love
So if we hold on to His Word I know He'll see us through
Sometimes He uses pain to prove His love for us