

The True Meaning of Christmas

© 2004 Polished Arrow Publishing Brenda Geneau

As I sit down to write you this greeting card
I want to share with you the joy in my heart
There's a story I've heard that changed my life
And this is my wish for you

May the true meaning of Christmas
Come to you this season
May the love of Christ fill your heart with a new beginning.

He was born in a stable righteous and pure
Sent down from heaven to be adored
The angels rejoiced at the sound of His Name
The King is born they proclaimed

He is God's only Son given to us
Died for our sins now He risen
So this year while you're thinking of friends you adore
Remember Jesus our LORD
